

WEB PORTALS

The Benefits Design Web Portal is designed with you, our client, in mind. We keep coming up with ways to make it work faster and more efficient for your company and employees. Don't let your staff get bogged down with day-to-day routine tasks.

The modern consumer wants a tool for quick and easy access to resources to handle their health and work/life balance issues. The Portal's unique combination of plan and health information gives employees a strong foundation to become savvy consumers of health care and other benefits. At its core, the Portal excels at employee education and communication on benefits and wellness.

Advantages to You, the Employer

Our website allows you to house all your benefits and forms in one centralized database instead of having to access multiple websites. It can be tailored to any benefits package.

- Enables you to streamline functions online and reduce administrative costs by automating time-consuming tasks; e.g., explaining company programs, furnishing documents and enrolling individuals in plans.
- Saves money through increased employee and HR productivity.
- Helps you recruit and retain the best employees by providing a professional employee benefits website 24/7.
- Reduces your exposure to compliance and regulatory problems.
- Improves employee efficiency by providing them with online access to resources anytime and anywhere. They can view benefits summaries, examine EOB's, download carrier and company forms, read your company's policies and procedures, etc.

An Added Value for Your HR Professional

The Portal essentially becomes an HR department website relying on it as its communication resource to share news, policies and documents throughout the organization.

- HR can publish content easily without technical support.
- Increases HR efficiency by reducing the time required to administer your benefits package.
- Simplifies routine tasks and employee questions with this 24/7 site where your employees can access information and forms.
- You can send to recruits to view your benefits programs.
- Downloads all the employment forms you wish.

We bring you a powerful web enabled tool that will quickly create an online environment for your company benefits and wellness programs.

WORKSITE WELLNESS

Wellness is a lifelong journey. It is an active process of making choices and commitments within the six dimensions of wellness.

Through the Benefits Design Web Portal we offer a unique combination of plan and health information which gives employees a strong foundation to become savvy consumers of health care. Your employees can gather information to help make suitable lifestyle choices.

Health care consumers need access to accurate understandable information to live healthier, ask their doctors the right questions and keep medical expenses in check.

The decisions your employees make directly affect both the medical experience of your group and your rates long term.
